SAFETY AND SUPPORT

There will be at least 5 responsible adults there, most likely more. Men and women. There are police officers on every block all night along the parade route and the streets are well lit. There are restaurants; stores and restrooms that are open all night. Pasadena Cyclery has allowed us to use their facility as an outpost for 14 years now.

WHAT TO BRING

Very warm clothes.

A sleeping bag.

Money if they want to buy food.

Food to eat if they don't want to buy food

A folding chair

Permission slips

4 unopened 11 to 13 oz bags of fun size candy bars. Example: Snickers, Milky Way, Twix, 3 Musketeers Etc.

Three 66oz containers of Nestle

Carnation hot cocoa mix. The water mix.

A recommendation letter from a Church Pastor or Church leader.

A great attitude!

WHAT WE NEED

Prayer, prayer, prayer!

If you have any problems getting the above items, contact Dominic or Kielyanne: arrangements can be made.

All signups must be confirmed by Sunday December 21st, 2015

All permission slips are to be filled out and required before the students leave.
